Marjorie Weinstein(1947 - 2018)

Marjorie Anne Weinstein, April 3, 1947 – July 31, 2018. She was born in Birmingham, AL where she had fond childhood memories with her dear friends. She later graduated from The Ohio State University and spent her young adult years in New York and Los Angeles, ultimately returning to the south to raise her family. Marjorie has a vivacious personality and was beautiful both inside and out. You knew when Margie was in the room and she was always the life of the party. A long-time teacher and former interior designer, Margie had a myriad of interests and talents. She was an avid gardener, amazing cook, and made beautiful hand-sewn dresses. She was a lover of folk music and art and had an affinity for antiques and her two adorable pugs, Harry and Sally. But her greatest achievement was that of a devout mother and her children, her greatest source of pride. Margie worked hard her entire life, was a self-described survivor. Even in the last decade as she suffered from dementia, she still managed to make others smile. She is preceded in death by parents Rosemarie and Dr. Sydney Weinstein (Birmingham, AL) and is survived by sister Ellen Rosenthal (Ned) of Dayton, OH, children: Joshua (Sabrina Thomas) Abrams of Asheville, NC, Stephan (Laura) Abrams of Jackson, WY, and Amanda (Ben Dorfman) Abrams of Atlanta, GA; and grandchildren Luke; Louis, William; Colin and Wyatt. A heartfelt thanks to the providers who lovingly cared for her over the last eight years at the Zaban Tower and the Breman Home. A graveside funeral will take place in Birmingham at 11:30am on Thursday, August 2, at the Elmwood Cemetery (600 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, Birmingham 35211). In lieu of flowers contributions can be made to Jewish Home Life Communities, 3150 Howell Mill Road, Atlanta 30327 or www.jewishhomelife.org. The family will be accepting guests for a havdallah shiva minyan Saturday at 5pm followed by visitation 5:30-8pm at the home of Amanda Abrams and Ben Dorfman, 3074 Caldwell Road, Atlanta 30319.
